

Invitation

to our Open Space Event

A Response To The Ukraine Crisis

Russia's invasion of Ukraine has created the worst humanitarian crisis in Europe since the second world war. Now, the overriding imperative is to stop the violence and support its citizens and refugees. How can we best help empower the empowerers, the organisations that are working to mitigate the devastating impact of this war?

Athens, May 12, 2022, 16:00-18:00

European Public Law Organization

Open Space This Open Space will take place in the context of the 1st Europe Bottom-Up Migration Conference at the European Public Law Organization building, Polygnotou 2, 10555 Athens. RSVP ▪ Admission is free; registration required: boeder@outlook.com or +491771338800

Europe Bottom-Up! Our mission is to strengthen participation and the shared responsibility of citizens, communities and groups. The Migration Working Group develops, practises and promotes new democratic participative formats, creating synergy across boundaries: europebottomup.eu

EPLO
European Public Law
Organization

University of West Attica
Department of Public Health Policy

